

Salina
Summer
Strings

at Kansas Wesleyan University

Summer Camp
June 19 - 25

Ages 12* and Up

One Week of Exciting Chamber Music for Strings

Each participant will be placed in a small group and can expect to:

- Develop leadership and interpersonal skills in a fun setting
- Learn to play with confidence in a small group without a conductor
- Improve their playing skills and musicianship
- Play great music and make new friends!

Edmund Stein

Rudolph Stein

Leonardo Rosario

Edmund and Rudolph Stein were born and raised in Salina and are sons of the late Eric Stein and Valentine Stein, founders of the Salina Symphony.

Both now have successful careers in the music industry.

Edmund Stein is a member of the San Diego Symphony.

Rudolph Stein is a member of the Pacific Symphony.

Dr. Leonardo Rosario is Kansas Wesleyan University's director of strings.

Dr. Rosario is a prize winner at the International Chamber Music Competition of the Chamber Music Foundation of New England.

*Under age 12 may be allowed with teacher recommendation, see site for details

For more information visit:

salinasummerstrings.com

